“ Matt was my best friend growing up! Still today I consider Matt as my best friend even though we haven't actually spoken in years! When I create an online account and it ask security questions such as "who is your best friend" my answer is always Matt! Matt and I used to ride bikes all over Lawrence county! I remember more about my life from the ages of 6ish til 15ish because of Matt! Like the time we filled up cooler of water that had red dye and blue dye in them so we could make red & blue snowballs to play war games with... or all of the war games we played along the railroad tracks behind Matt & Ty's house. The time Mary Jane had to get me off their roof because I had found the BEST hiding space behind the chimney! The basketball goal in the front yard, the baseball field we build just a few blocks up, the radio controlled car track we build for radio controlled cars we didn't have.... Every Christmas morning was exciting because I couldn't wait to find out what toys I got but also what Matt got because we always played together and shared so much! The worst part about moving to Missouri was leaving my best friend, Matt!

Mr. & Mrs. Callahan,

I met you all and Matt whenever you came into the BIG AL'S by the First Baptist Church..Matt was such a kind, sweet and caring young man..always had a smile on his face and always made me laugh on his visits to the store..we talked quite a lot personally and I enjoyed every minute of it..we shared our problems when we had them..he always seemed to know whenever I was upset or needed to talk because he would get his soda and lean on the end of my counter until I would start talking with him..sometimes I would cry with him but before he left we were laughing our heads off..then vice versa with him and his problems..though he didn't have many major ones but we were still there for each other..him and Ty mean the world to me..I haven't seen Ty in years but remember him as much as I do Matt..
I am so happy that you all have a wonderful guardian angel to look over you and guide you through the rest of your lives..HE WILL BE THE BEST!!

R.I.P MATT CALLAHAN..GO REST HIGH ON THAT MOUNTAIN SON..YOUR WORK ON EARTH IS DONE..YOU WILL ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED BY ALL!!
