“ Dear Mom

Do you remember that day when we all went to the Painted Rock Lake? I remember it like it was yesterday. We didn't take any fishin gear cuz who would've thought there would be so many fish in that tiny desert lake. But there seemed to be thousands of em just a swimmin' there on top of the water. I remember that there was so many of em that us kids just waded right out into the water and began scoopin' em up with our hands and throwin' em up onto the bank. My, we had so much fun that day! But the thing I remember most was your smile and hearing you laugh as you and Carol, and I think Nettie, slipped and slid on the slippery bank as you picked em up and dropped em in an old bucket that we found lying somewhere. Man, you were having so much fun! I think that's the most you laughed in a long long time. I'll never forget your face that day, with mud all over it, but with a big silly grin on it that stretched from ear to ear! Then dad built a fire and we cooked em and ate em right there on the spot even though they were so bony and probably didn't taste as good as you older folks thought they should cuz we didn't have any flour and salt. But we didn't mind cuz that was the best day ever and they sure were delicious to us! Thanks mom and dad, and I hope you're having a great big fish fry up there in heaven. But you better save some for me and Jackie and all the rest of our bunch cuz my mouth's waterin' already.

*Love Ya,
Your daughter, Brenda*

“ My heart is heavy and sad for the passing of my Aunt Alice. She was a very special lady and I have a lot of fond memories of her to always cherish. I am glad that she is finally at peace and resting. Her struggles are over and she is finally getting all her rewards in heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and hope they find strength in the arms of Jesus. Happy Mothers Day Aunt Alice and know you are enjoying your first one in Heaven. I will miss you but you will always be in my heart. God Bless Cindy
