“ Brandy was always the sweetest caring loving person u could ever meet. When I first met her at peco and worked with her there she was so kind to me never a cross word then she married my cousin Tim and she always stayed sweet like she always was . She was the perfect person for Tim and the kids couldn't have asked for anyone any better as another mommy. She was loving and caring and truly will be missed. Don't think she ever met a stranger cause she was that out going.

I knew Brandy a very long time. She was always so sweet and had the most beautiful soul and spirit. I know she believed strongly about God and that makes it easier for me to know that. God bless her family and friends. I will say a prayer for you all. Sorry for your loss.
