“ *Oh My Gosh Carita, Where do I start with all the memories we have shared??? We have been friends for 20+ yrs. You and I had so many great times, either me staying the night with u and Amanda or just running the roads or backroads of the big town of Walnut Ridge!! You were always such a beautiful girl, always smiling!!! When U didnt feel good, u still put on that beautiful smile of urs!!! U will be miss by so many!!! I love you so much!! I know ur family is crushed right now, Amanda is grieving so bad and she loved you so much, of course as sister's, u fight and make up and never think twice about it!!! But, Amanda did love u so very much!! I know u were in so much pain before the good Lord took u to fly with the others up in that big mansion!!! All I can say is, you are and will be missed by so many!!! I pray for ur family daily and ask that God help your family, friends, and ur kids to deal with this horrific loss!!! I love u and will miss that smile!! The day God took you was already a bad day, because although some dont know. it was the same day God took Rodney Stormes home to be with the angels too, lots of yrs earlier!!! I love u Carita and know ur looking down at us telling us not to weep, that ur having a ball up there.... Someday we will all meet again, Until then.....I love u my friend!!!!!!
