“ Carol was my neighbor and will be remembered for her big heart and the big porch she continually called out her welcome from. I couldn't pull into my driveway without a loud greeting, big wave, and an offer of coffee or wine (or both! ;-). There were many lonely days in my life when Carol was there. Nobody will ever fill the space across the driveway we shared for eight years. She was my safe space. I could say anything to her and she listened without criticism. I was blessed to know her.

“ Carolyn Ann was my 1st cousin and also my 1st friend. We lived 1 mile apart and worshiped in the same congregation most of the time. Many of my memories of my childhood include Carolyn. We climbed small trees together, We played in the gullies. We waded the creek bed by grandparents house. We questioned the unknowns of the birds and the bees. She will always hold a special place in my heart and I am sad that we didn't spend more quality time together as adults. I offer my sympathy to her loved ones.
