I volunteer help at Randolph Home in Pocahontas. There I had the privilege of meeting Kay. She was always pleasant and had such a sweet spirit. Her room mate told me Kay was always her same sweet and caring self and that she could never have found a better room mate. There's much to be said when a person lives to the end and continues through life's journey with a calm, caring, and gracious spirit. I know her immediate family and consider them among my dearest friends. God Bless and comfort you all. Kathy Smith

*Benny and family
My heart goes out to you and yours.
I will never forget the first time I met Kay to the last time I got to see her, June 2009. She always made me feel special, the way she did everyone.
You all were so blessed to have that sweet wonderful person be in your life, as in mine.
Ezell knew her his whole life, and he deeply cared for her as he did your whole family.
You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Oh Jeannie, thank you. Mother loved people. She was always glad to see you guys and its just been too long. We appreciate the flowers an the kind words. Always good laughs when you guys came down. I can hear Ezell, Mom and Dad telling the old stories and laughing now. As hard as times were for all these families mentioned, they knew how to enjoy life and have fun. Thank you. Yes she is one of the best people I have ever known. I I often say, "you can't pick your parents and I am blessed because I have two of the best parents ever." They are not just my parents, they are my best friends.

Thank you. God Bless you.
