“ I remember going to the hill farm with Jack in the summertime when my mom and I would come down for a visit. He would let me shoot at the snapping turtles floating out in the water with a pellet gun. I remember running into Walnut Ridge to Wal-Mart with him to pick some things up. I always enjoyed visiting Maida and Jack in the summer at least a couple of times a summer when I was younger. I have my own family now and did not get down to see them in a long time but I always had fond memories of being down there. My daughter Sidnie even went down with my mother and met them a few years ago and she always remebered meeting Maida and Jack. My family would like to pass our deepest condolences to Maida and all the family at this time.

“ Jack loved farming. He worked many long hours in the rice fields. He was an excellent provider. We were always well fed and taken care of.

Jack loved to hunt and shot his last deer in 2012 at the age of 92. The deer and squirrels in heaven better look out.

I remember when we were kids and would spend hours frog hunting on the rice levee next to the house, We would fill the wagon full of them. Jack always made sure we returned them to the levee.

Jack would take us swimming in the pond on the farm and assure us the snakes wouldn't bother us. I was never convinced of that.

We loaded up in the car and went to the drive-in theater on Saturday night during the summer. It was a fun time spent together.

Jack was blessed with a good long life. I will miss him and all the good times we had together as a family.

To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die.....

Love, Sandra
