“ I didn't know you, Clayton, only your selfless sacrifice so I sleep warm in my own bed each night. I'm so sorry that the horrors of war stole your life way too young. RIP young man. Thank you for your dedicated service.

“ Buck, your son Clayton was a hero. I owe him a debt of gratitude that can never be repaid. He fought to protect me and all Americans. He demonstrated far more courage and selflessness than I ever could. "No greater love hath any man than to lay down his life for another." I pray he has found the peace he deserves because he helped preserve peace for me and many others. I pray for you and your family now and ask for comfort and reassurance in the Lord. Most sincerely and respectfully, Linnette Baughman Pryor (class of 73).

“ Clayton Hill, I've never met you but I know you're parents. I know that they are hurting but have confidence that you have reached eternal peace with God. You served your country well, followed commands and did as you were told. When you came home, you brought back burdens no human being should have to carry. I pray that someday your legacy will be honored. You were lived by many.
