“ When I saw this name, I knew immediately that she was a relative, then when I saw her maiden name, I knew it. I have heard Daddy talk to his parents about the Halsteads, and most likely about the Lords also. Wish I had known her, she looks like such a pleasant person and one that could bring us up to date on every family member. Sending sympathy to the family that will miss her so very much. We can accept but we will never forget. And, to family members who wonder where I came out of the woodwork, my dad was Kenneth Clements and his dad was Topy Clements. Both are gone , but believe me, I remember so many things about them. They were precious to this person. my contact is rhetamcdowell@gmail.com.
