“ Judy and family this is very difficult for us to write, but we want you to know we are thinking about you. We know God will guide you through the difficult times you will face in the future, but think of what a wonderful place Dexter is in with no more pain. Judy we remember all the fun we had back in the day when we were all carefree and running around enjoying ourselves. Life takes turns we don't understand but if you ever need us we are just a phone call away. We love you and will be praying for you and your family.

“ Papaw, I will never forgot all the times you let me comb what little hair you had, ha... and drink that wonderful homemade tomato juice!! I'm also so happy that you ask God to save your soul, beacause one day i will see you again!! That is what makes me happy, I hate that in my older years we weren't as close, than when i was smaller. But when we reunite in Heaven we can drink our tomato juice again, and you can let me comb that bald head of yours one more time!! I LOVE you PAPAW!!!

“ Judy, I cannot imagine the challenges you and your children and family have faced during Dexter's illness and final hours. There will always be days that one wonders why but you are such a strong, faithful, special christian lady you will pass through this storm as you have others in the past and be stronger and an example for others.

Judy, we love you and if you ever need a hand to hold, a shoulder to lean on or someone just to listen we are here for you.

I will always remember the day that Dexter told Jerry and I the story of being pinned in the elevator with the black lady who was having a baby and he had to assist. I laugh everytime I think about that. He was special and now he is resting in the bosom of Jesus, pain free, walking those streets of gold. Praise God for never giving up and hearing all the prayers that were offered up. The Devil didn't have a chance.

God Bless and our thoughts and prayers are with you!

“ Judy, Penny, and sons,

We are saddened by Dexter's death, but rejoicing in his surrender to Christ before his death. We all can take solace in knowing that he is in a better place and not suffering any more. It is hard to say goodbye because we are not ready to see them go and the days and years ahead will be difficult for all of you. You are in our thoughts and prayers and we love you.
