

Dolores Anderson

July 7, 1929 - May 24, 2012

Dolores Marie Anderson passed on to the Kingdom of Heaven on May 24, 2012 at the Kansas Heart Hospital, Wichita Kansas after a long illness.

She was born Dolores Marie Endstrasser on July 7, 1929, in Detroit Michigan to parents Joseph Anthony Endstrasser (Jr.) and Dorothea Marie (Schutt) Endstrasser, both deceased.

Dolores was preceded in death by her husband Roscoe Roy Anderson. Roscoe was a U.S. Navy Veteran who served during WWII. Dolores and Roscoe were married on August 18, 1948.

Children are Lanny Anderson, Thyrise Cahoon of Jonesboro, Arkansas, and Jeannie Reynolds of Wichita, Kansas.

Grandchildren are Sarah Thorn of Jonesboro, Arkansas and John Cahoon. Great Grandchildren are Carson Thorn and Collin Thorn of Jonesboro, Arkansas.

Dolores was a Graduate of Edwin Denby High School in Detroit, Michigan. She completed Technical Training with the Department of Industrial Education – Chrysler Corporation, and worked for Chrysler Corporation in the Detroit area before her marriage to Roscoe. After several moves with Roscoe's Naval Career, Roscoe, Dolores and their children settled in the Fayetteville, Arkansas area. Dolores worked for the University of Arkansas. After retirement and the passing of her husband Roscoe, she moved to Wichita, Kansas to be near family there. Dolores was a member of the Disciples of Christ Christian church. She was an avid reader and had a curious mind, a positive outlook and a generous heart. During the last few months, she still read and loved to watch TV, particularly reruns of "Murder She Wrote" and "Dallas" and had taken interest in news programs. The three dogs in the home loved her and she gave them "backrubs." She loved to converse and interact with others. She is loved by family and pets and is greatly missed.
