“ Many fond memories of life and times with Aunt Doris and Uncle Vernon. As kids, our families would all meet at Granddad Lee's house on Saturday evenings to watch westerns (Gunsmoke, Have Gun Will Travel, etc.) on TV. It was a big deal in the 50s - life was pretty simple. There was plenty of conversation, laughter and love, as always. Love you, Aunt Doris.

“ So very thankful the Lord brought you and your family into my life. You are my Momma too (as you clearly adopted me and gave me the title of your other daughter and Adrian your granddaughter). We shall miss you here on earth as you are rejoicing in Heaven. Our hearts are heavy. Memories are many. You will be cherished always and forever.

All our Love & Deepest Sympathy.

“ MAMA Doris Will always be in my heart. She has the most beautiful soul, she is the most loving, caring and giving lady I have ever had in my life. I feel so blessed to have known her. It makes my soul feel safe knowing she will be watching over me and her son Jackie as he is my best friend. We all know the lord received a very special angel yesterday. My heart is and will always be with the family. I love you Mama Doris always... Love Eddie Hartley
