

Dwight Earl Gonser

February 3, 1945 - February 16, 2024

Dwight Earl Gonser, 79 of Imboden, died February 16, 2024, in the Flo and Phil Hospice House in Jonesboro.

Born February 3, 1945, in Marmaduke; son of the late Benjamin Harrison and Lillian Justine Melton Gonser. He was a retired Forman for Emerson Electric and then owned and operated a Dump Truck service. He enjoyed the Outdoors and collected Arrowheads.

Survivors include one daughter; a grandson; one sister, Lavada Montgomery of Paragould; numerous nieces and nephews; several special friends and neighbors.

Services will be announced at a later date.