“ Every memory I have about Euna Faye includes laughter ... seriously, every memory! No matter what the context was ... she always filled the room with joy. She laughed easily and was either laughing with you or for you!

She was really fun to be around and she was someone that you could lean on.

Ruthanne and I will miss her and we will be praying for all family and friends ... asking that the God of all comfort will graciously give all of us the gift of His peace and presence.
