“ My nanny Grace was the most amazing person I've ever known! She is my guardian angel and my rock. Life will never be the same without her in it and it still hasn't completely set in. It's so unreal, I've never imagined this day and still find it hard. She's the best person in the world and never met an enemy. She wanted to be a friend to everyone and help anyone in need. She was such a blessing to everyone who knew her and I wish I could talk to her one last time because there is just so much to say. I love her more than anything. I'll never forget her.
