“ Janelle Henry

“ Driving in from Texas today, I was thinking about all the many things and people Janelle's sweet hands must have touched in her lifetime. From taking care of her 4 children, to working hard to make ends meet, cooking and baking, gardening and cleaning, meeting and greeting, and finally loving on her grandchildren and great grandchildren. The hands of a wife, mother, and grandmother are always busy.... and Janelle's hands touched everything and everybody with love and kindness. :) Rest now with the angels.

*With great respect, love, and admiration from your daughter-in-law...

“ She was my step- mother and step-mother in law. She was always there for us. When we needed her to watch the girls and get them to and from school she would do it no questions asked. She would go on school trips with the girls when we had to work. She made things for their class parties. She would make anything that we asked her for the holidays. She is going to be greatly missed and always loved.

“ She may have been a step grandmother to me but she was the only grandma that I ever knew. She would always have a snake for my sister and I after school. She would make anything we asked her to make for our school parties. She and Grandpa would go on the class trips with us too. Than for the holidays the pecan pies OMG they were the best. No store could ever touch her's. Once I had my two boys She and Grandpa would always look forward to seeing them. There is many things that I'll miss abut my grandma. I love you and miss you.
