

Janice Lee Reynolds

September 11, 1951 - April 5, 2020

Janice Reynolds, 68 of Jonesboro, formerly of Portia, passed away April 5, 2020 at her home in Jonesboro, where she had resided for the past 12 years.

Born September 11, 1951 in Walnut Ridge, she was the daughter of Jewell and Adeline (Ervin) Reynolds. Janice was always aware of her blessings as a beloved only child of older parents. She was a member of the Coffman Free Will Baptist Church but while living in Jonesboro, she attended The First Baptist Church.

Janice was a 1969 graduate of Black Rock High School. She then received her BSF from Arkansas State University in 1976, then went on to receive her MSE from ASU in 1978. She was a kindergarten and second grade teacher at Westside Elementary for 35 years. She was known for her no-bake cookies.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Jewell and Adeline Reynolds.

Survivors include numerous family and friends, Butch Burrow that said she was his soulmate.

Graveside Service will be Tuesday, April 7, 2020 at 1:00 P.M. at the Lawrence Memorial Cemetery in Walnut Ridge with Bro.Vance Penn Officiating.

Pallbearers will be Hunter and Lee Smith, Barry, Randy, and Scotty Bryant,

NB

I got to know Janice when her parents were at Lawrence Hall Nursing Center. She would come everyday & bring her dad something to eat & then she would turn her attention to her mom, fixing her hair & then go back to her dad & get him cleaned up by shaving him. She bought the staff some really good bon bond at Christmas & they were so good. I am glad to have got to know her & help take care of her parents.
