“ I have such good memories of Johnie and his family. After Johnie returned from the military,he moved onto our farm and my dad,Edgar Howard gave him enough acerage to farm so he could qualify for his VA benefits. Johnie was always like a big brother to me. Sincere condolences are sent to his family.

“ You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Dad and Johnie were very good friends. I have such fond memories of growing up in the 50s and 60s when Johnie had the station at the end of town. I remember him always being nice and friendly. Pauline and Mom picked a lot of cotton together. They were both very special ladies.

Your family has always been special to us.

*With Christian Love,
Jim*
