“ As the mother of a close childhood friend, Joyce Weir was a quiet and gentle presence during my formative years. She was a capable and wonderful mother, and I'm sure her children rise up and call her blessed. Sending much love Suzanne-

“ I will never forget that after I had my accident; Joyce got down on her knees and washed my hair. We did not had a shower at that time and I had a full cast on my leg. Such a kind and Christian thing to do.
