“ Laura and I would take to the road in her maroon thunderbird with the music loud, the windows down, singing loud to “Melissa”. Mtn Home was our favorite place to go. Visiting Silver Dollar City will never be the same. She was a great friend to me as she was to all. Until we meet again sweet friend! From Stacy Belew

“ Laura grew up three houses down from me on Tony Drive, In Jonesboro. I never really saw her get mad at anything, And her parents [Who I adored] Were just like her. I saw her all through her life, while she was in Jonesboro. I was so blessed to be around her and her parents. This really hits me hard. It's the good ones you never recover from when they go. Prayers.....
