Laveda Scott passed away peacefully in Hospice Care at Lawrence Hall Nursing Center. Laveda lived a great life of 93 years. Her family loved her very much. She was born on July 19, 1932, in Bono, Arkansas.

Laveda was an active member of the United Methodist Church in Walnut Ridge.

On August 30, 1952, Laveda Songer Scott married Ray Scott in Cheyenne, Wyoming. They were married for almost 69 years. They are survived by two daughters, Cathy Holman (Rick) and Cindy Logan (Scott);

Laveda is preceded in death by her parents, Ezra and Clara Songer; her brother,

Ray and Laveda were passionate about traveling together for many years in their motorhome. They also loved going to River Bend in Hardy and staying in their motorhome by the river.

Laveda went to Bono school all 12 years of her school life. She was the Valedictorian of her senior class. After she graduated, she attended business college in Jonesboro. Laveda was then employed by Citizens Bank, where she was secretary to the President of the bank. Then, she met Ray Scott at a basketball game. She went to Cheyenne, Wyoming, in August 1952 and married Ray Scott, who was in the Air Force. Laveda worked for the railroad while living in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Laveda also worked at Bay High School, where she was a bookkeeper and secretary to the Superintendent. When Ray was employed by Westside High School as the first boys' coach, Laveda was a library assistant for 19 years.

We are saddened by her loss, but we know that there was a beautiful reunion in heaven with Laveda and Ray, and other family members who preceded her.

“ I have known Ray and Laveda since Cathy was 3 years old. Ray was my junior high coach at Luxora, he always called me his cheerleader and told everyone that. He and Laveda were some of the greatest people I have ever known. I have sat with Laveda at many basketball game. She probably couldn't count the games she been to, always there cheering Ray and his team to victory. She was a very loved woman by her family and all who knew her. Thoughts and prayers are with her sweet family. ☐🙏
