“ My deepest symphay goes out to the Simms family, during their most time of need. To Kevin & Allen lam sorry to hear about your father passing, I remember back in the 70's we were just kids, and I was spending the weekend at your house. We were fast asleep in bed when your dad came in and woke us up to tell Kevin that a truck driver had just ran over his beloved horse. He was so gentle and heartbroken to tell Kevin what had happened, and I had wished at that moment that my own dad was as loving as your dad, I pray that your entire family has the love of Jesus on your side and that your father Leonard will rest in peace . God bless you Kevin & Allen I will always hold you both dear and close to my heart and will be praying for you guys. P.S. remember always {Stay Gold}.

“ My heart is very saddened over the death of Mr. Simms. I know he isn't suffering anymore but that doesn't take away the pain in everyone's heart. My prayers are with each one of his family members. If I can do anything for anyone of you, please let me know. God bless and I love you. May God give peace to each of you today and always.

“ I loved to sit and listen to Leonard and Junior Abbott tell tales and stories. Those two could spin a yarn! Always one of the hi-lites of my trip south. Rest in peace.
