Hey Grandma Maggie, I hate that you got sick. Gods got you now and you are better. He caught me a few years back when I got hit by that semi, guess I was not quite ready he threw me back! Abi was not to be she had to be restarted 2 times before she was 15 mins old. She was a angel sent to us. Would it be to much to tell Papaw I miss his stories and will meet on the great bye and bye. Maybe he and Grandpa Jim has meet up, they both loved to talk about fishing to me. They are both missed really bad.

“ It is so strange to say goodbye to a lady I never knew. Only things that Mamaw Lizzy and Papaw Ted would say about different parts of the family You and Terry included was all I knew Till my little sister and myself grew together on face book. They were a connection to you, a grandmother, as mom said Maggie was " a dandy lady ,like a rosebud still wet with dew" . I had hoped one day to be sought out after Abi was born. Goodness knows we were your family. Why was Aunt Sherry, Uncle Joey and their boys, Mamaw and Papaw the ones that we felt love and fun with? I guess in life it was only meant to be for 2 short young years. Maybe in Death we will meet you on the sunny side of the shoreline were there is peace, no sickness, It is only in love that I write this. Mom and Aunt Sherry placed a bouquet of flowers with you from us. We hope you liked them. Give Papaw a big huge from the 3 of us. Forever yours, Amanda Brooke, Heath, Abigail Ruth" AbiRuth"
