*Marshall was the greatest he love me so much as I do him.he told me every day how much he loved me ,that I was beatful.and how I was all he thought about all day .and how he could not waite to get home and be with me ,as I could not waite for him to be home with me.we had a lot of kids we help take care of we had some we did not but we thought of them all as our own.he loved them all he loved life.he also love the out doors,country music blue grass and more.we had Jonny Cash singing Amazing Grace he love his music,i also had look at us it was our song to one another we song it to one another all the time.it is by Vince Gill,and I also had The Dance.song by Garth Brooks.he song it at Dale siner furlal.and that was Masrhalls nascar driver,so I played it for him.he will be miss never be replaced and always loved.love

“ Cynthia wrote this and gave us a copy. This is what the pastor read at Marhsalls funeral. She wanted us to share.

Do not grieve for me, because God has set me free.

Like the birds that fly, like the wind that blows in the trees.

You ask yourself why?

It was meant to be, for me to be free.

Like the stars that are in the sky, like the sunsets, again will rise.

Like the moon, and clouds cover the sky, there shouldn't be a tear in your eyes.

Fore one day we will be by one anothers side, and everyone who is alive must one day die.

This is not goodbye, for one day we will see one anothers face when God takes us to the greatest place.
