

Myrle Callahan

December 11, 1919 - October 17, 2011

Myrle Ryburn Callahan passed in her dreams on October 17, 2011 in Gulf Breeze, Florida.

Myrle was born December 11, 1919 in Elnora, Arkansas to Thomas Washington and Mary Elizabeth Swinney Ryburn. Myrle was raised in Walnut Ridge, graduated from Walnut Ridge High School in 1937. She was the last of eight remaining in the Ryburn family.

Myrle was the wife of the late James Leland Callahan who preceded her in death in 1991. Surviving are two sons, James Leland Callahan (wife Paulette) and Samuel Thomas (wife Susan, deceased), Five (5) Grandchildren, Jamie, Michael, Kelly, Tom and Tim. Eight (8) great grandchildren and one (1) great-great grandchild.

Myrle's love for and need to help and support people led her to becoming a License Practical Nurse. Much of the joyous time in her life was while working at the Lawrence Memorial Hospital and in the office of Dr. Joe Hughes.

After retirement Myrle and Leland spent many delightful years traveling in their RV, throughout the United States, parts of Alaska and Eastern Canada. Many winters were spent in South Texas.

A loving homemaker, Myrle enjoyed cooking for her family, especially large meals for her extended family, with emphasis placed on baking, bread, rolls, pies and cakes. The fragrance of her kitchen will always be remembered by those who experienced it.
