“ *Jeanette and Curt,
I loved Natasha and will always remember her as that sweet little girl with the chubby face that always seemed to be smiling. I have a memory of when I took her to Jonesboro, let her over indulge in treats, and brought her home to you sick! She had such a good time that day and I'll always remember her laughing and smiling. That is a good memory and one I'll cherish. You have lots of memories of Natasha that you can cherish as well. As long as she is in your heart and thoughts, she will always be with you. Take comfort now in knowing that Natasha is with Daddy, Donna, and Christie so she is well taken care of.
I love you and am here for all of you.*
