“ One of my favorite memories of Patsy was seeing her at the Hardy McDonalds, she always ran over to you with a huge smile on her face so happy to see you and "catch up", she certainly never met a stranger and she always made you feel special.
Many people loved her and my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ We have so many good memories of Patsy, it would be hard to choose just one. She was our good friend, our good neighbor, and our sister in Christ. Somehow she always knew when someone had a need and she was always there to help.
Rest in Peace, Patsy.

“ Patsy always loved kids. My girls still have a little necklace she gave them when they were little. Marvin was preaching at Ward Street at that time & she was so sweet to my girls. She & Mickey never had kids of their own but Mickey always said they had 100. All kids loved them. Love you patsy
