“ Paul was a wonderful husband. He was always attentive and kind and true gentleman in a world where they are so few. He was a Godly man governed by principles based on God's Word. He never said an unkind word about anyone, but spoke highly of folks whether he knew them for years or they had just met. He was gifted at recognizing God's gifts in people And never judged any person by the exterior appearance.

Paul was a dedicated father of 7 children. He prayed diligently for them and always trusted the Spirit of God he saw in each one. I admired his unshakable faith. His Anchor always held regardless of how fierce the storm. Paul battled cancer for a long time, but it was not cancer that took him home, it was his Precious Lord Jesus that beckoned him to His eternal home, back to that place in the Presence of the Lamb from which he started as a thought expressed by the Great I AM eventually manifested in the person called Paul Johnson.

He is there now gathered with the saints around the throne singing praises to our Lord Jesus. The storms of life are over, tears and sorrow forgotten. Eternity stretched out ahead. I am so thankful that the Lord chose me to share Paul's life.

“ I am sure that all of us who were touched by Paul Johnson's life are remembering some of the amazing times spent with him. I, in particular am very honored to have spent a whole day with him and his friend at Bet She'an last year, where we had some good laughs and contemplated the many historical events which happened at the very spot where we visited. I am also left with many childhood memories with his laughter filling a room. Rest In Peace, Paul Johnson. May G-d bring comfort to his children

“ beloved Bro. Paul one of the founding members of the Tucson Tribe...how heaven must be ringing with all the laughter and songs as Pastor and Sister Grace, Bro. Reynold and Sister Doris, Sister Emily, Sister Nellie, Mama Rachel, baby Anna and of course Shulamit join together, getting ready for that great 'homecoming' that seems just around the corner...even when Paul's younger I'll know him by his folding white hanky, over and over looking for a dry spot, though perhaps his nose has stopped dripping! and his rocking back and forth on his feet trying to contain all that creative energy while the Presence of the Almighty filled the room...rest gently dear brother...the Almighty has blessed us with the next generation of Sons and DAughters of God and they're following the Great Commander, just as we did.....warts and all! May the Mighty God of Israel comfort those who mourn in Zion and lead us all safely home! patty and quinten erickson

“ The uncle Paul I knew, was a Son of the Most High God; a trophy of His grace and love toward whosoever will humble themselves enough to step from the throne of their own lives, admit their dependance upon the one true and living God for anything in them to be of any worth whatsoever, and trust in the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ to have fully paid the price for their failings in action, thought or motive. He was an artistic, hard working man who seemed to get dealt the hard yards, yet resisted the temptation to become embittered and always met me with a spark in his eye and a ready smile. I always enjoyed spending time with him and valued his viewpoint.
