“ My brother Paul was loved dearly..

*How do we let a son, brother, husband, father go?
How do we say 'I'm ready now
to go on without you'?
How can we ever have a clue of what that really means?*

*And all of a sudden
The moment is upon us, and there's no turning back.*

*And then we know what grief is,
and guilt and love and things undone.*

*But there is peace too.
Peace and acceptance and overwhelming love that we maybe weren't aware of.*

*Waves and waves of conflicting emotion,
And laughter too,
and memories we hadn't bothered lately to recall come flooding back in shared company*

and it's all about Paul

And there's gratitude.. so much of that, that we had you, such a wonderful brother

*Bright and shining, nobody's fool,
Independent, but humble too;
Smart, and kind, and fun.*

Adventurous.... the love of motorcycles, his motorcycle friends, and their club.

The only person I ever trusted to get on a motorcycle with. It was so much fun, going down the highway, the wind blowing over us, you laughing at me.

A part of you has passed away, but much is carried everyday within us, and will as long as we are here.

*This may be a final tribute,
A time to celebrate your life and say goodbye;
But it's not final.
Everyday I'll celebrate in some way, just by the virtue of how you were a part of my life,
The absolute and incredible fortune that I knew you.
As a brother, a friend and a person who loved life.*

“ When Paul was born he was such a cute little short legged boy. The doctor had to beg him to cry. He was not a cry baby, he only cried once that I remember and that was when his dad, Jack died. He was everyone's friend if they let him. He was a law officer in and out of uniform, treating everyone with the proper respect. He is one to be remembered. Always and forever, his (momma)

“ *My best memories of Paul are riding with him on his bike letting the wind blow our cares away. Paul was a very kind, thoughtful, and caring young man.
Just wanted to let the family know my thoughts and prayers are with them in this sorrowful and difficult time. So sorry for your loss, sending hugs!!*
