“ Sweet Phillip - Several years ago I worked at the Jackson County Learning Center and had the wonderful opportunity to become friends with Phillip. He always gave 100% to everything he did whether it was in the classroom, on a job or participating in Special Olympics. Phillip was usually serious, but could always make you smile. In the years since leaving Newport, I have often thought of Phillip - with a smile on my face.

How blessed Phillip was to have such a wonderful, supportive family. I remember one especially cold winter, Mrs. Marlin and Phillip gathered up several blankets and gave them to me to distribute to students in need. He loved his family dearly.

And how blessed his family was to have Phillip in their lives. I know you will miss him, but I also know you will rejoice in the wonderful memories.

You are in my thoughts and prayers.....

“ I'll never forget when Phillip and his mom and dad visited my grandfather and grandmothers home (Rayburn and Irene Marlin) in Rockford from Arkansas when I was growing up there. Phillip was a kind and gentle person. I remember swimming with him in the cement pond out back. He will be missed by all who new and loved him.
