“ Our thoughts are with the Warner family during this time. As a young child, I remember visits to Ruth's house with my mother Louise Boothe and grandmother Lottie Rice. This was during a time when Uncle Charlie and Aunt Lenie lived in a small house at the back of the Warner home. The last time I saw Lanny, he was a young bratt, giving his mom and dad a fit. I remember Tonda, we are not that far apart in age. One other memory is Lawrence and Bill Adams trading sea stories about their time in the South Pacific during WWII. That talk inspired me to join the navy and do twenty years. My time too was spent in the South Pacific. My prayers are with all of you. We lost Louise in 2005 and Lottie in 2002, she was 94. Blessings to all of you.
