“ I have just learned of Sylvia's death. I am greatly saddened by her passing. She was a very special person to me and my eldest son, Chris. I know she must have been a loving grandmother, because she gave much care and concern to the children who were entrusted to her care. May she enjoy eternal peace and reunity with those she so loved who passed before her.

“ We are so very sad to hear of Aunt Sylvia's passing. She was a very special, kind lady. I loved the days I was able to spend with her, Uncle Arlo and Janice. I remember how she lovingly cared for our dear Daddy Jim, her father, who lived there for many years. How I cherish the sweet memories of relaxed visits to her peaceful, hospitable home in Walnut Ridge... talking, spending time in the pleasant backyard, admiring her garden, and marveling at how time seemed to slow down when I was there.

“ *We are saddened by the loss of Aunt Sylvi. She and Uncle Arlo made so many of us happy in her long life. She is now with the Lord whom she loved so dearly.
