“ Marie, Debbie & Norman,

You have been blessed to have T-Bone as your Husband & Dad. T-Bone's quiet personality and charming wittiness was so evident to all that knew him. He was a giving and peaceable man. He blessed all that was in his company the wisdom that he shared with all that listened to him. His love of family and hard work, especially the working in the garden was something that he learned from his parents, but learn he did. I feel very much blessed to have spent as many hours as I have, only to regret, not to have spent more time talking with him. I know that he is having a wonderful home going to see his parents and loved ones and knowing how much T-Bone loved his family. I am very sure he is really having the time of his Eternal Life visiting with family and friends that had gone to heaven before he got there.

God bless all of you; just know there are many prayers for you even now. Jesus knows the hurts of your heart right now, but HE longs to be with you to comfort those hurts and build on a relationship of a lifetime, to be in daily contact with Jesus. That is the way Family Re-Unions really begin. Love Donna Parker
