“ Grandma Thrisa. She was such a sweet woman! I hadn't seen her in a long time, but I knew she wasn't doing well. I am sorry for the family. Loss is never easy. Praying for your comfort. Sherry, Hunter and Ashley.

“ I am late getting a memory of Thrisa on here. Thrisa and I went to church together at DeValls Bluff we helped sand and varnish all of the wood in our new church building. We would get so tired we got silly at the end of the day. George worked out of town and I was divorced so we had free time others didn't after the wood was finished we started cleaning up everyday after the men worked late in the afternoon and night she helped with anything she could at the church and I grew to love her. I lost track of where she was if I had known she was up there I would have made a point to go see her last Thursday I was at Hoxie for my Aunt Henrietta funeral at the same church. God gained 2 angels with Thrisa and Aunt Henrietta. May Thrisa rest in the arms of God
