“ Mike, Karen, and Travis's other family members, I am so saddened by this news. I have soooo many precious memories. I was there in San Antonio when he was born, and what a handsome baby he was. Over the years, I saw him grow into a fine young man, and had the joy of him visiting here many times. I've prayed for years that some medical miracle could be found, so that his health could stabilize, and him have the best life had to offer. I have to accept that God's plan for him, was different than what I was praying for, and that he's safe, and pain free, with our dear Lord. I'll cherish the wonderful memories of him, and keep his family in my prayers. Rest now, Travis...I'll never forget you.

“ I guess I knew where I stood when Nana used to yell at Tim or I if Travis didn't get to lick her cooking spoon and watch her cook. We were hungry after football or basketball practice and would fight over the spoon . Nana ( Tressa Bobrowski) made him number 1 in the house and we read or played outside til dinner. We were happy to let him have the spoon . It was her love.
