Thank you so much. I have learned it is a road you can't describe, you have to learn to take it one day at a time, some days minute by minute.

“ I can't remember just how I made contact with Warner but I do remember it was his name that made that meeting possible. If I remember correctly, his grandfather was a minister and pastored a small church in Izard Co AR when I was a kid. My friend and I were doing jail/prison ministry in the 80s and our paths crossed. He and I enjoyed our conversations about his grandfather and my memories of those "old times" at that small church. May your memories of him comfort your family. Liz Neal Salem AR

“ Though I never actually met Mr. Warner I know he was a loving father, and a wonderful person. Ive heard so many stories over the years from Chad whom I love so much. My favorite one is about him baptizing people. Its a very unique story. I wont ever forget it. Makes me feel close as my father was a minister. Love so much what he stood for by his love and his stand for God.

“ I’ve been blessed to be friends with the Allen family for 36+ years. In that time, I’ve heard Warner’s testimony and messages many times, through Biker Sunday services, Class of 1966 reunion devotions, personal discussions, and officiating funerals, including that of my own young nephew who died in 1994, after having established a relationship with Warner through his prison ministry. It’s always been evident to me that Warner knew his Bible personally and always spoke from a Believer’s Heart. My faith is deeper as a result. Thank you, Warner. Carolyn, Elizabeth, Chad, Reggie, and Martin, please know that my love, my thoughts and my prayers are with you all.

“ Carolyn and all the family, I'm so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one, Warner! He was a legend in his own time! What a witness for Jesus he was! I loved to hear his life's testimony and heard it in his sermons a few times as he preached Gods word. I kept up with him through the years and would see him from time to time at our church, what a blessing it would be each time! I pray that God would let you all recall a special time in your mind's eye with him that would bring a smile to your face and comfort to your heart!
