“ My Uncle Wilburn was a good Christian , he explained receiving the Holy Spirit. From time I was born he was a big part of my life. I lived with my grandparents,his parents. He come play Barbie dolls , taught me drive only if I took my high heels off. We'd race down the back gravel road in Minturn. Helped me with my bicycle and would let me ,Diann,Bobby and Danny Floyd swim in the rice field irrigation spill. Until he got attacked by Alzheimer's ,he'd come visit me in Jonesboro. He'd tell me stories of his life as a boy to now. We'd both laugh till tears come. We promised secrets. To this day Wilburn makes my heart smile and I know Heaven is rejoicing . He told me 2013 he loved me forever this day never stopped . A smile from Wilburn said more than words. Porch swing memories. Fly high Wilburn up to Heaven I'll see you around. Gods speed ,
Love Always Theresia Gill
